INDIAN EDUCATION IN MONTANA – A FORUM ON:

- Reauthorization of the Elementary Secondary Education (ESEA)

Monday - September 20, 2010

8:30 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Red Lion Colonial Inn, Helena, MT

Who Should Attend?

Tribal Education Leaders, Elected Tribal Government Leaders, Public School and BIA Boards of Trustees and K-12 Administrators, state educational leadership organizations, Legislators who represent Indian students, Indian Legislative Candidates, and all others interested in the Education of Indian students.

ESEA IS: The Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) is currently up for Reauthorization and it is the most important federal law that applies to American Indian and Alaska Native tribal students. The ESEA currently has 10 Titles with multiple programs. Some are general programs, like the Title I Improving Basic Programs and Impact Aid Program, and some are specific to Native Americans, like the Title VII Indian Education Act programs. Tribal students, whether they attend Bureau of Indian Education (BIE) funded schools or state public schools, are served by all of the ESEA programs.
